1. Introduction

The BFI Disciplinary Code was approved by the Executive Committee on 2023, in accordance with sporting ideals and precepts, to ensure that its affiliates and its members abide by the principles of good conduct and ethics, in this sport. In view of this the Executive Committee has decided to merge the functions of the Ethics Committee and the Disciplinary Committee, given that BFI is a small organization. This has been discussed with the ministry of youth affairs and sports, who have no objection.

In accordance with the sporting ideals, principles and guidelines of the Olympic Charter and in furtherance of the purposes set out by the Bridge Federation of India, henceforth referred to as BFI, the BFI requires its 'Members' to respect the fundamental principles of discipline and ethics. The objective of this code is to -

- (i) reinforce and promote discipline and ethics and prohibit any violation thereof.
- (ii) ensure an acceptable form of behaviour by all members.
- (iii) ensure that all members play the game according to the rules and regulations of Bridge both in letter and in spirit.
- (iv) ensure that all members participating in Bridge tournaments do so in a fair manner and with integrity.

In order to ensure the above and prevent any Reprehensible Act & Conduct or behaviour, BFI constituted the Disciplinary Committee and the Disciplinary Code

This Disciplinary Code describes various types of conduct which constitute "Reprehensible Act or Conduct", and which may be penalised with one or more disciplinary sanctions. This code will be enforced by the Disciplinary Committee.

2. Scope of Application/ Jurisdiction

This code shall apply to all members of BFI.

2.1 Without limitation, the expression 'members' shall include.

- (i) All affiliated state associations,
- (ii) Any individuals (including players, non-playing captains, team representatives, coaches, tournament directors, technical officials, technicians, Chef's d' mission, accredited individuals, participants, observers and spectators) who participate in or attend any event, tournament or competition organized, granted or sanctioned by the BFI or its affiliates,

Bridge Federation of India

- (iii) Any individuals who hold any position or carry out any functions on behalf of either the BFI or its affiliates including any organ or committee of the same and
- (iv) Any other individuals who otherwise are directly or indirectly subject to it.

3. Responsibility of State Associations/Affiliates

- 3.1 Each state association or affiliate shall, upon request, provide all reasonable assistance to the investigation of the alleged Reprehensible Act & Conduct of its member or affiliates and in conducting any resulting disciplinary proceedings.
- 3.2 In respect of any sanction imposed pursuant to this Disciplinary Code, the state associations and their affiliates shall respect, and be responsible for the enforcement of such sanctions within their respective jurisdictions and spheres of activity.
- 3.3 In the event, that an association becomes aware of behaviour which is likely to amount to Reprehensible Act & Conduct as mentioned in this Code, it shall immediately inform the BFI Executive Committee of the same.

4. Disciplinary Committee – Formation

- 4.1 The Disciplinary Committee is an independent organ of BFI and the sole adjudicating body within BFI (next to the BFI's Executive Committee for matters falling within its competence).
- 4.2 The Disciplinary Committee shall comprise a Chairman and 5 (five) members.
- 4.3 Disciplinary Committee can have independent nominated persons (prominent Government Officials, Industry Leaders etc.) as committee members. However, it is advised that the Disciplinary Committee should essentially comprise individuals who are Bridge players of repute.
- 4.6 The Disciplinary Committee Chairman will be nominated by the BFI President.
- 4.7 The appointed Disciplinary Committee Chairman will then recommend members of the Disciplinary Committee to the BFI Executive Committee for its approval. The Disciplinary Committee will perform its functions free from any influence and without fear or favour.

5. Disciplinary Committee: Role, Responsibility & Modus Operandi

- 5.1 The Disciplinary Committee may carry out all actions which fall within its jurisdiction, virtually or in any place it deems appropriate.

Bridge Federation of India

- 5.2 The proceedings of the Disciplinary Committee shall be conducted in English language.
 - 5.3 The Disciplinary Committee shall exercise jurisdiction over all 'members' of the BFI as defined above.
 - 5.4 The Disciplinary Committee shall only consider complaints received which meet the requirements for the admissibility of complaints as set out in the Disciplinary Code.
 - 5.5 The Disciplinary Committee has no power to Suo Moto investigate breaches of this Code, but shall open a case, investigate and evaluate it after receiving an admissible complaint lodged with and forwarded to the Disciplinary Committee by the BFI President.
 - 5.6 The Disciplinary Committee shall investigate all such complaints received from BFI President and recommend sanctions or other measures to the BFI President, in accordance with the Disciplinary Code procedures.
 - 5.7 Disciplinary Committee will take cognizance of any report or note of the Tournament Director/ Chef d' Mission, which is indicative of any 'Reprehensible Act or Conduct' of any member, during the tournament.
 - 5.8 Tournament Directors /Tournament Committee /Chef d 'Mission to file the Tournament Report within 7 days from the completion of the tournament
 - 5.9 During all operations, the Disciplinary Committee will draw on precedents, mutatis mutandis, already established by sports doctrine and jurisprudence.
 - 5.10 A member of the Disciplinary Committee may not take any measure nor exercise any authority in relation to a matter where any conflict of interests or any other form of conflict exists or is justifiably perceived to exist. He/she must recuse himself/herself.
 - 5.11 Members of the Disciplinary Committee shall be indemnified by BFI in relation to any claim arising from the carrying out of their duties as members of the Disciplinary Committee. Except in the case of bad faith or gross negligence, no member of the Disciplinary Committee may be held individually liable in respect of any act or omission relating to any investigation, case, procedure, or decision taken pursuant to the provisions of this Code.
- 6. Reprehensible Acts & Conduct:
Reprehensible Act & Conduct includes, but is not limited to, the following:
- 6.1 Illicit or unethical behaviour on the part of an individual which is aimed at improperly affecting, or otherwise likely to improperly affect, the outcome of BFI or its affiliated events or match or any part thereof, including, but not limited to, cheating, corruption, match-fixing, and bribery. Bridge Federation of India complaint through the CTD or the State Association, who will forward it to BFI. In case an investigation is launched, BFI will also inform the Member's State Association.

- 9.2 Any aggrieved member may lodge a complaint with the Tournament Director / Tournament Committee. The Tournament Director / Tournament Committee shall evaluate the complaint and if found admissible, will forward the same to BFI President.
- 9.3 The complaints shall be forwarded to the BFI President, in the prescribed form and format (Annexure II), by the Tournament Director/Chef d' Mission, maximum within 7 days from completion of the tournament.
- 9.4 The BFI President will forward the complaint to the Disciplinary Committee for adjudication.
- 9.5 Disciplinary Committee shall not consider any anonymous complaints. It is clarified that Disciplinary Committee shall have the power and authority to maintain strict confidentiality of the matter and parties involved therein. However, the Disciplinary Committee may ask for the comments of the individual even regarding anonymous complaints.
- 9.6 BFI President shall only consider complaints if they are lodged as per clause 9.3 above.
- 9.7 The Tournament Director must take the cognizance of Reprehensible Act & Conduct by the member and act as per this code, to take action immediately and impose suitable sanction with reference to Annexure I.
- 9.8 In case of disagreement with the Tournament Director decision, for Reprehensible Act & Conduct, members may complain to BFI and it shall forward the complaint to the Disciplinary Committee for necessary actions.

10. Urgent Proceedings

When a matter is considered 'urgent' it may be recommended as such by the Tournament Director/Chef d' Mission/ BFI Executive Committee on an expedited basis, in particular, but without limitation, the Disciplinary Committee may be convened on an ad hoc basis in order to deal with alleged Reprehensible Act & Conduct. In these circumstances, the Disciplinary Committee shall be entitled to take certain measures (including the imposition of certain sanctions, if necessary) and to defer other matters for subsequent consideration, if necessary. The quorum for urgent proceedings will be two members of the Disciplinary Committee.

11. Regular proceedings

Bridge Federation of India

- 11.1 The Disciplinary Committee will communicate the nature of the reprehensible act and conduct to the individual or association in writing/email. The individual/association will be allowed to respond to the charge within 10 days from receipt of communication from the Disciplinary Committee.
- 11.2 The Disciplinary Committee shall investigate the complaints and in connection therewith may adjudge after notice and an opportunity to be heard that the member be reprimanded, censured, suspended, expelled or any combination of the preceding or otherwise be disciplined as a player.
- 11.3 No suspension or expulsion so adjudged by the Disciplinary Committee shall become effective unless a representation right is given to the 'Member' with reasonable timeline. Such representation rights must be given to the Member even in cases where the Member's State Association files a case against the Member.
- 11.4 A second round of written submissions shall be permitted only in exceptional circumstances.

12. Hearing

- 12.1 The Disciplinary Committee shall determine, after receipt of the written submissions (and any further information or documentation) whether an oral/in-individual hearing is necessary.
- 12.2 The hearing should be held as soon as reasonably practicable following the closure of the written proceedings.
- 12.3 The Disciplinary Committee shall seek to organize any hearing in an appropriate location (bearing in mind the states of residence of the accused individual, experts, witnesses and the members of the committee. If no suitable venue is agreed, the hearing will be held online.
- 12.4 The Disciplinary Committee will decide (whether on the basis of the written submissions or after a hearing) by majority or unanimity.
- 12.5 The Disciplinary Committee shall record its reasoned decision in writing which shall be signed by the Chairman and notified to the parties concerned as soon as reasonably practicable by appropriate means (post/courier/ email).
- 12.6 The fact the accused individual(s)/association does not participate in the proceedings of the Disciplinary Committee (or any part thereof) does not prevent or restrict the Disciplinary Committee from proceeding and rendering a decision.

13. Enforcement

Bridge Federation of India

- 13.1 This Code, approved by the BFI Executive Committee on dd/mm/yyyy takes effect from dd/mm/yyyy.
- 13.2 With respect to the Reprehensible Act & Conduct, which may have occurred and were reported prior to the enforcement of this Disciplinary Code, the substantive provisions under BFI MOA shall apply.
- 13.3 Tournament Director/Tournament Committee/Disciplinary Committee shall take cognizance of any “Reprehensible Act or Conduct” committed at the playing arena and additionally designated other areas which are considered part of the venue.
- 13.4 It is primarily the responsibility of the Tournament Director/Tournament Committee/Chef d’ Mission, to enforce this code, in view of event-specific provisions and take necessary measures and impose sanctions immediately, at the event in question. (Please refer to the guidelines in Annexure I, in this regard)
- 13.5 For the avoidance of doubt, this Disciplinary Code shall be without prejudice to these event-specific provisions. Similarly, the fact that event-specific measures may be taken in respect of behaviour occurring at such events shall not in any way prevent or restrict further disciplinary measures being taken in respect of the same behaviour in accordance with the provisions of this Code.
- 13.6 This Disciplinary Code shall be without prejudice to any powers which the President / Executive Committee may have pursuant to provisions contained within the Statutes or By-laws of the BFI including, in particular, the power to suspend or remove an association or affiliate from the BFI and the power to suspend or remove a member from his/her position.
- 13.7 This Disciplinary Code shall not apply, and be without prejudice, to illegal acts including inter alia anti-doping matters, anti-betting or wagering laws and regulations, which shall be governed by the Indian and WBF Anti-Doping Rules and Regulations and other applicable laws.
- 13.8 The code will apply to all national and international tournaments, where the members have been selected through BFI or its affiliates including tournaments conducted under the aegis of BFI. This will be in addition to the applicable version of the WBF Code of Ethics and the WBF Disciplinary Code as adopted by the World Bridge Federation.

14. Disciplinary Archive

- 14.1 A Disciplinary Archive is to be maintained for all reports received, excluding those cases that are abundantly groundless and will be logged against the name of the person complained of.

Bridge Federation of India

14.2 The Archive will be strictly confidential and will be under the responsibility and control of the Secretary BFI and can be consulted only by the BFI President and the BFI Disciplinary Committee during their investigatory functions.

15. Guidelines for Imposing Sanctions

These guidelines have been laid by the BFI Executive Committee, to adopt a consistent approach to the imposition of sanctions on those 'Members' who breach its Disciplinary Code. The guidelines are intended to assist in determining the appropriate sanction for any person who admits or has been found guilty of 'Reprehensible Act & Conduct'. (Please refer to Annexure I). The sanctioning authority will be the BFI President, who may at his discretion refer the matter to the Executive Committee if the penalty envisaged is significant.

16. Discounted Sentencing

16.1 Life bans for partnerships are not subject to any discount.

16.2 The period of suspension for other sanctions may be discounted by one- third where the offender admits their culpability and demonstrates remorse.
